

Akron Power Squadron Boat Show Dinner

Saturday 14 January 2012 1900

As winter is in full swing what better way to think about the upcoming boating season than to attend the Mid America Boat Show at the IX center. This is a great way to get our minds off the cold and snowy weather and to think about our true passion, boating. After we have walked around the boat show looking at all the new and shiny boats we can all get together with our fellow boating friends and squadron members for nice dinner and discuss our next boat purchases. We will be gathering for dinner 14 January 2012 at approximately 1845 at nearby 100th Bomb Group Restaurant, located near Hopkins Airport, featuring a WW II English farmhouse atmosphere and views of the Hopkins Airport runways. This restaurant specializes in fresh fish and hand cut beef plus serves chicken, seafood, vegetarian, drinks with unique names, and appetizers on their menu.

If you are interested in joining our group, please call

P/D/C Robert Ball, SN at 330-499-3000 or Robert@henryball.com.
